Day 3: Munich ~ Passau, Germany ~ Embark Ship

After breakfast this morning, make your own way to the train station and board your train to Passau. The journey takes approximately 2.5 hours and offers a comfortable way to travel through the Bavarian countryside.

On arrival in Passau, you may have some free time to explore before embarkation. Welcome to Passau, the starting point of your festive Danube River cruise. Known as the City of Three Rivers, Passau sits at the meeting point of the Danube, Inn, and Ilz rivers and is renowned for its baroque architecture, church history, and charming old town.

Take time to wander through the historic centre with its pastel-coloured buildings and cobbled streets. A highlight is St Stephen's Cathedral, home to one of the world's largest cathedral organs.

This afternoon, make your way to the ship and embark on your festive Danube River cruise. Settle into your cabin and enjoy the atmosphere as the ship departs Passau and begins its journey along the Danube, surrounded by wintry landscapes and Christmas cheer.

PORT TIMES:

Day 4: Wachau Valley ~ Vienna, Austria

This morning, enjoy scenic cruising through the breathtaking Wachau Valley, a UNESCO World Heritage listed region celebrated for its natural beauty, historic villages, and vineyard covered hillsides. As the Danube winds its way through this magical landscape, take in uninterrupted views of medieval ruins, charming riverside towns, and peaceful winter scenery. This stretch of the river is a true highlight of your festive Danube cruise.

Arrive in Vienna this afternoon, a city that truly comes alive during the Christmas season. Grand squares and elegant boulevards are transformed into festive wonderlands, filled with the scent of cinnamon, mulled wine, and sweet seasonal treats.

As you explore Vienna's famous Christmas markets, Christmas music drifts through the streets and traditional arts, crafts, and decorations are beautifully displayed against the city's imperial architecture. From Rathausplatz to Stephansplatz, each market offers its own unique atmosphere.

Spend the evening at leisure soaking up the festive charm, wandering through illuminated streets, or enjoying a warm drink at one of the many market stalls. Tonight, Vienna invites you to slow down, explore, and simply enjoy the magic of the season.

Day 5: Dürnstein ~ Melk, Austria

This morning, arrive in the picturesque village of Dürnstein, one of the most celebrated stops along the Austrian Danube. Nestled among vineyard covered hills, Dürnstein is where terraced vineyards meet medieval architecture.

Enjoy time at leisure to wander through the charming old town, visit the distinctive blue tower of Dürnstein Abbey, or take a short walk up to the ruins of Dürnstein Castle. It was here that England's King Richard the Lionheart was famously imprisoned in the 12th century. From the castle ruins, enjoy sweeping views across the Danube and the surrounding Wachau Valley.

This afternoon, arrive in Melk, often referred to as the Gateway to the Wachau Valley. Dominating the town is the magnificent Melk Abbey, a UNESCO World Heritage listed Benedictine monastery perched high above the Danube.

Spend time exploring Melk at your leisure, admiring the abbey's impressive baroque architecture and enjoying panoramic views across the river and surrounding countryside. The blend of historic charm and natural beauty makes Melk a memorable highlight of your festive Danube cruise.

Day 12: Mainz ~ Loreley Valley ~ Koblenz, Germany

This morning, arrive in historic Mainz, one of Germany's oldest cities with a history spanning more than 2,000 years. During the Christmas season, Mainz is especially atmospheric, with festive decorations and a traditional Christmas market set against the impressive Mainz Cathedral in the cathedral square. The illuminated cathedral is a true highlight and well worth a visit.

You may choose to explore the old town at your own pace or join one of the optional excursions to discover Mainz's rich history, culture, and wine heritage.

This afternoon, sit back and relax as the ship cruises through the legendary Loreley Valley. Steep cliffs, wintry forests, and charming riverside villages line this famous stretch of the Rhine. According to legend, the Loreley, a beautiful nymph, once sat atop the cliffs and lured sailors with her song, a tale that continues to capture the imagination.

Arrive in Koblenz in the early evening and enjoy time ashore before returning to the ship. Stroll through the city and admire its festive lights and picturesque riverside setting at the confluence of the Rhine and Moselle rivers. Back on board, delicious culinary delights await.
