Day 1: Arrive Dublin ~ Galway

Welcome to Ireland! This morning, depart Dublin at 09:00 and travel west through the picturesque farmlands and peat bogs of County Kildare and Offaly towards Kilbeggan. Visit Kilbeggan Distillery, one of Ireland's oldest licensed distilleries, where you'll have time to enjoy a dram of their famed Irish whiskey and perhaps pick up a bottle to take home. Continue your journey with a choice of local lunch spots before visiting the atmospheric Clonmacnoise Monastic Site, founded in 544 by Saint Ciarán. Explore the ancient churches, round towers, graveslabs and Cathedral ruins, with time to visit the visitor centre and view the impressive high crosses. In the afternoon, continue to the charming village of Shannonbridge for a peaceful stroll along the River Shannon or a visit to Luker's Bar, one of Ireland's oldest and most atmospheric pubs. This evening, arrive in Galway City, known for its lively atmosphere, traditional pubs and excellent restaurants. Spend the remainder of the evening at leisure before settling into your accommodation for the night.

APPROXIMATE TRAVEL TIME: Approximately 4-5 hours total driving time, excluding stops along the way.

Day 2: Galway ~ Burren ~ Killarney

This morning, depart Galway and travel along the coast towards the spectacular Burren, one of Ireland's most unique natural landscapes. Stop in the charming village of Kinvara to admire the historic Dunguaire Castle before continuing into the Burren, a fascinating landscape of limestone pavements, rare flora and ancient monuments. Visit the 13th-century ruins of Corcomroe Abbey, set against the dramatic Burren Mountains, followed by a scenic stop at the ancient Poulnabrone Dolmen. This afternoon, continue to Kilfenora, known as the "Town of the Crosses", where you can visit its historic cathedral before stopping for lunch. Continue to the magnificent Cliffs of Moher, one of Ireland's most iconic natural landmarks, where towering sea cliffs rise dramatically above the Atlantic Ocean. Enjoy breathtaking coastal views and discover the landscapes featured in films including Harry Potter and The Princess Bride. Continue south through County Clare and cross the Shannon Estuary by ferry before arriving in Killarney. Spend the evening at leisure, with plenty of time to explore the town's traditional pubs, restaurants and live music.
