DAY 8: Udaipur ~ Ranakpur ~ Jodhpur

After breakfast drive to Ranakpur, a tranquil pilgrimage town located in a secluded wooded valley of the Aaravalli Hills. Here you will visit the magnificent Jain Temple. The great Adinath Temple is one of the five great holy places of the Jain faith. The architectural complexity of this temple and its 1,444 columns which are all individually and intricately carved ensure that any visitor will be most impressed with the grand scale of this temple. Men and women are not allowed to wear shorts and in accordance to the Jain religion any products made from leather or animals must be left outside. On arrival, check in at your hotel and relax. (5 hours drive)

MEALS: Breakfast

OVERNIGHT: Standard or Deluxe Hotel, Jodhpur

OPTIONAL ENTRANCE FEES: Ranakpur $7

DAY 9: Jodhpur City Tour

Jodhpur "The Blue City" was once the capital of the state Marwar and is built tumbling down a low sandstone hill, right on the edge of the great Thar Desert. At the summit of this hill stands the Mehrangarh fort built in 1459. Standing above a perpendicular cliff, the fort looks impregnable – an imposing landmark, especially at night when it is bathed in yellow light. In the morning we visit the Fort and wander around the multiple red sandstone buildings, palaces, barracks, temples and Havelis enclosed within its walls. The Fort has a fantastic view down over the city and you can see all the old houses washed in a sea of blue paint. Entrance fee includes a head-set which talks you through each part of the Fort. Later visit Jaswant Thada – The white marble memorial to Maharaja Jaswant Singh II and then in the afternoon, explore the Sardar market around the Clock Tower. The clock tower is a popular landmark in the old city. The vibrant Sardar market is close to the tower and narrow alleys lead from here to bazaars selling vegetables, spices, Indian sweets, textiles, silver and handicrafts. It is a great place to ramble around at leisure. There are many restaurants in this area with rooftop dining so you can view the impressive lit-up fort over dinner and a cold beer.

MEALS: Breakfast

OVERNIGHT: Standard or Deluxe Hotel, Jodhpur

OPTIONAL ENTRANCE FEES: Jaswant Thada $1 | Umaid Bhawan Palace Museum $5

DAY 10: Jodhpur ~ Osian ~ Jaisalmer

After breakfast drive to Jaisalmer, (5-6 hours drive) on the way you can visit "Osian"- the ancient town of the Thar Desert which was a great trading center between 8th and 12th centuries AD. Today it is a desert oasis with 16 Brahmanical and Jain temples. These are beautifully sculpted and designed, and most of them have stood the ravages of time. You can tour the impressive Hindu and Jain temples at Osian and then continue on to Jaisalmer.

MEALS: Breakfast

OVERNIGHT: Standard or Deluxe Hotel, Jaisalmer

DAY 11: Jaisalmer

The 'Golden City' of Jaisalmer is dominated by its eponymous Fort, a fairytale structure which seems to rise directly from the endless expanse of desert surrounding the city. Jaisalmer Fort-known as Sonar Quila or the Golden fort, rises from the sand and merges with the golden hues of the desert ambience. The setting sun in its most colourful shades gives it a fairytale appearance. Inside the fort you can see the Jain temples which are famous for their beautiful architecture. Then visit to Patwon Ki Haveli - A group of apartments, this is one of the largest and most elaborate of Havelis in Jaisalmer and stands in a narrow lane. Visit to Deewan Salim Singh Ki Haveli, built in the first half of the 18th century and a part of it is still occupied. Spend time on exploring the old city area and the sandstone Havelis on foot. In the evening you can visit the Khuri Sand Dunes where you can ride a camel up the dunes to view the spectacular desert sunset and then drive back to your hotel and relax. The camel ride is not included in the price but is well worth the experience so we recommend you do it and live out your Aladdin fantasy!

MEALS: Breakfast

OVERNIGHT: Standard or Deluxe Hotel, Jaisalmer

OPTIONAL ENTRANCE FEES: Fort $20 | Parwon Ki Haveli $6 | Salim Singh Haveli $1

DAY 12: Jaisalmer ~ Bikaner

Today start early drive to Bikaner. (6 hours drive) Bikaner was once a major trading post between Africa, West Asia and the Far East. The arts prospered receiving the patronage of a wealthy merchant community. Did you know, Bikaner is known as 'Camel Country' and is famous for the best riding camels in the world? Fact. Bikaner stands on a slightly raised ground and is circumscribed by a seven km long embattled wall with five gates. The magnificent forts and palaces, in reddish-pink sandstone created with delicacy, bear testimony to its rich historical and architectural legacy. Undulating lanes, colorful bazaars and bright and cheerful folks make the visit Bikaner an interesting experience. On arrival check in at your hotel and then visit to Junagarh Fort and Bhandasar Jain Temple which is known to have foundations filled with pure ghee...Strange huh?! Then, if time permits visit to Lalgah fort museum - outside the walled town, is a sprawling extravaganza of carved friezes, jails, pillars and arches in the distinctive reddish-pink local sandstone. Part of it has been converted into a hotel, and another section into a museum with vintage photographs and wildlife trophies.

MEALS: Breakfast

OVERNIGHT: Standard or Deluxe Hotel, Bikaner

OPTIONAL ENTRANCE FEES: Junagarh Fort $10 | Lalgah Fort & Museum $3 | Camel Breeding Farm $5

DAY 13: Bikaner ~ Mandawa

After early breakfast drive to Mandawa (4 hours drive) - a small pretty town in the Shekhawati region. On arrival check in at your hotel and relax for a while before going out to explore Mandawa. Mandawa is famous for its beautiful Castles and stunning Havelis. Nowhere in Rajasthan will you find such exquisitely designed Havelis. Every Haveli maintains its individuality and are decorated with wonderful paintings. The murals depicted on the walls of the Havelis are antique in design and there was a time when precious gems were found on these. The rich history of Mandawa is reflected in the large number of Havelis and forts found there. We will take a drive around the different Havelis including Chokhani, Ladia, Binsidhar Newatia, and Gulab Rai Ladia Haveli. Another haveli, the Binsidhar Newatia Haveli, is known for its curious paintings. The Gulab Rai Ladia Haveli is famous for its erotic images, now mostly unfortunately defaced.
